Propers for Today's Mass : The Propers for Sexagesima Sunday can be found on page 85 of the Campion Missal/Hymnal.

Religious Instruction for the First Communicants will take place today after the 11:00 am Mass. Adult catechism will meet Monday, February 9.

Second Sunday Brunch will be held today after the 11:00 am Mass. This is our Annual Chili Cook-off. We hope that many will have brought their favorite chili recipes. We hope that “non-contestants” will have brought corn chips, crackers, cheese and other chili toppings. First, second, and third certificates will be awarded.

Second Collection next Sunday February 15: This collection is for Aid to the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. It supports Catholic organizations that provide affordable shelter and train seminarians in an area that still struggles from the effects of 70 years of Soviet rule. Your donations help to restore the Church and build the future in this region.

Change in Music Schedule: Schola on Wednesdays, following the 6PM Mass; Choir on Sundays, following the 11AM Mass; Vocal technique, sight-singing and repertoire, Thursdays following the 6PM Mass for those available and interested.

Ignatian Retreat Opportunity: Experience an Ignatian silent Directed Retreat at St. John’s Center, Little Rock beginning Thursday, March 19 with a dinner at 6:00 pm and ending Sunday, March 22, after lunch. Cost is $300.00 For more information and registration contact Office of Formation at 664-0340, ext. 323.

Pro-Life information: Two agencies are working to end the use of aborted fetal cells used in some products, vaccines, medicines, cosmetics, and foods. They are Children of God for Life (www.codforlife.org) and Sound Choice Pharmaceutical Institute (www.soundchoice.org) Check them out!

Dear Community Members,

We're now into the season of Septuagesima. This past Monday, we celebrated Candlemas, aka The Feast of the Purification of Our Lady. As promised we began with the candle blessing in the Marian Room and then processed into church for the Sung Mass. The feast was celebrated beautifully and I thank all concerned. It takes work to set stuff up in a location other than the church. I only wish that there were more of you on hand to celebrate this most lovely feast.

I blessed throats again Tuesday for the Commemoration of St. Blaise. I'm glad I made the decision to bless throats on Sunday, since not many were able to make it to Mass Tuesday. St. Blaise was Bishop of Sebaste in Armenia who was martyred in the time of Licinius in about A.D 316. All particulars of his life rest on legendary acts and old traditions bound up with the veneration of saints in the liturgy of the Church. However, by this very fact, even though various "wags" might want to do away with saints like Blaise, these legends and acts are never to be absolutely rejected.

According to the legend Blasius was a physician at Sebaste before he was raised to the episcopal see. At the time of the persecution under Licinius he was taken prisoner at the command of the governor, Agricolaus. The hunters of the governor found him in the wilderness in a cave to which he had retired and while in prison he performed a wonderful cure of a boy who had a fishbone in his throat and who was in danger of choking to death. After suffering various forms of torture St. Blasius was beheaded; the Acts relate also the martyrdom of seven women. Stuff of legends? We need more of such legends.

It's now the time to think about renewed participation in CASA , the Catholic Arkansas Sharing Appeal. We had a very good showing last year, reaching about 170% of our goal. It is my earnest hope that we will not only match last year's performance but that we will do it with efforts of more than only nine community members.

I end with asking for more prayers for my sister. She experienced a setback last week. Family is so precious, my children and my friends.

Father Magiera
