Propers for Today's Mass : The Propers for The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost can be found on page 377.

Choir rehearsals will resume today after the 11:00 am sung Mass. These rehearsals are every Sunday for about 45 minutes.

Sight singing or “solfège” classes will be held by Mr. Clayton following the 6:00 pm Mass every Wednesday to increase the membership and quality of our schola/choir. All are welcome to attend.

Schola rehearsals will now be every Thursday following the 6:00 pm Mass.

Second Sunday Brunch will be held today after the 11:00 am Mass in the Parish Center. The theme is a summer barbeque. Pulled pork and hotdogs will be served with your favorite picnic side-dishes. All are invited to attend, especially newcomers and visitors to our Latin Mass community.

Second Collection for TODAY is our annual collection for Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary. Since it was not announced in last week’s bulletin, some may not be prepared to give a donation this week, but your offering envelope or other envelope clearly marked for the Seminary donation may also be placed in next Sunday’s second collection for Catechetical Sunday.

Second Collection next Sunday, Sept. 20 will be for Catechetical Sunday.

Handmaids of the Lord are scheduled to clean the church on Saturday September 19 after the 8:00 am Mass. All women of our community are encouraged to spend at least one Saturday a year in this important task.

Annual Rummage Sale: A date has been set for Friday, November 13 and Saturday morning November 14 for our Rummage Sale. We will set up on Thursday November 12 which will require many volunteers. Donations for our annual rummage sale can be brought to Mass on Sundays and put in our storage room.

Dear Community Members

Fall is rapidly approaching. I struck me Tuesday morning that it's now relatively dark at 5:30 AM. I must say, I consider that quite good. I, for one, get tired of bright sun streaming in through my window at those early hours. Sometimes the sun has awakened me before my alarm clock goes off. Now, there's not so much competition between the two.

Soon we will mark the autumnal equinox, which occurs this year on 23 September, the formal beginning of Fall 2015. This year the Fall Ember Days line up just right. Ember Wednesday is 23 September. Our farewell to Summer is the Feast of St. Thomas of Villanova.

Well, I'm now home more than a week and I've gotten back into the swing of things. I even "celebrated" the first day of dove season, this year for the second time since I arrived. Last year, I bagged one. This year, nothing, I'm embarrassed to say.

This month, in addition to the Feast of Our Lady's Nativity on the 8th, there are two very important days in our liturgical calendar. The first is the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on the 14th and the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel on the 29th. The Exaltation is especially important for us and for all traditional communities because it marks the anniversary of the effective date of Pope Emeritus Benedict's moto proprio, Summorum Pontificum. It was a very happy day for all of us 11 years ago. Then, I celebrated Solemn Mass which was followed by a Te Deum.

I remind you all of our custom of two Masses on Holy Days of Obligation and First Class Feasts. There will be two Masses on 29 September. Since it is a Tuesday, there will be the usual 7:15 AM Mass, of course. But, there will also be a 7:00 PM Sung Mass.

Space doesn't allow me to write extensively on our Religious Education plans for 2015/2016, so I'll talk about them from the pulpit on Sunday. As I write this, the weather is cooling down a bit. Let's all enjoy the respite, my children and my friends.

Father Magiera
