Dear Community Members,

Last Sunday's Brunch and Talen Show was a rousing success. Those not present really missed something. As Colonel Sanders is fond of saying, the food was "finger lickin' good." The talent offerings were varied and expansive, ranging from poetry to blue-grass. Yeehaw, y'all. A special thank you to our three new Handmaids of the Lord who ran everything, Katie Elsinger, Marti Ryland and Lauren Couron. Lauren, Marti and I will be meeting soon to expand and firm up the Handmaids of the Lord. This meeting will cover everything from family commitments, work-groups, funds and effectiveness. So, to all ladies (and their families, of course) Sunday brunches and church cleaning do not happen by themselves. People are needed. This community and I need you.

Our newly formed Holy Name Society met for the second time. Its mission and purpose are now more firmly and clearly articulated and society customs and traditions will be established. For example, the plan will be for members to assist at Mass as a group and receive Holy Communion together once per month. A new work project is planned involving the presently unused kindergarten annex. All men of the community are heartily invited to become members in this group which will concentrated on reverence for the Holy Name, the virtue of fortitude, manliness in leading their families to God and working in and for our church community.

Father and I usually alternate Sunday Masses. I sang the 11AM Mass last Sunday and the previous Sunday because, as you'll see, I'm not here this weekend. When you read this, I'll be in Austin, TX because, on Sunday, I'll be invested as a Knight of the Holy Sepulchre. This is an honor, not only for me, but for you and this community. Knights of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre are papal knights, and priest-knights are "canons" with a few ecclesiastical privileges. As you know, this community already has knights in Frank Barry, James Balch and, even though they're no longer with us, Michael and Amanda Prince. Mike and Amanda visited last week and they'll be back with us around Christmas.

Next Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King, October's "last hurrah." This great feast day falls on the last Sunday in October in the 1962 Church calendar. In the "new" Church calendar, it is the final Sunday of the Church year.

I remind you all again about our All Saints party which will happen on Sunday, All Saints Day, following the 11AM Mass. Our children will each dress up as his/her favorite Saint and there will be a contest, first of all to guess the name of the Saint and then for the best and most original costume. This will be a reminder to us all about what All Hallows Eve (Halloween) is really all about, namely, honoring God through His Saints.

I also remind you to get the names of your beloved departed to me – using the All Souls envelope in your packet, or, if you don't have envelopes, in an envelope you label – as soon as you can, certainly before All Souls Day.

I close by asking you to pray for the repose of the soul of own Caroline Bruich who passed away Wednesday. Her Requiem will be at St. Edward Church on Saturday, 17 October at 1:00 PM. I anointed her and gave her the final absolution and plenary indulgence. She was a wonderful lady. My children and my friends.
