Propers for Today's Mass: The Propers for Easter Sunday can be found on page 263 of the Campion Missal/Hymnal.

Special Collections: Building Fund collection today, Easter Sunday.

Knights of the Altar: Regular rehearsal next Saturday, 2 April, following Mass and First Saturday St. Monica Devotions.

Handmaids of the Lord: Dear ladies, please join the handmaids as they clean the church next Saturday, 2 April.

Music for Little Ones: All children up to age 9 and moms (or dads or other family) are welcome to Music for Little Ones Tuesday, 5 April. As usual, all will meet in the Marian Room at 4:15 PM.

Feast of the Annunciation: This feast has been transferred from March 25 to April 4 because it could not be celebrated during Holy Week and had to be moved to the first Monday after the Octave of Easter. We will have the regular 7:15 am Mass and then a sung Mass at 6:00 pm.

April Brunch: The April Brunch will be held next week, the first Sunday of the month due to Divine Mercy Sunday. The brunch is hosted by Tom and Margaret Bulmonski. They will provide a ham and suggest side-dishes such as scalloped potatoes, green beans, etc. plus your favorite Easter desserts. Divine Mercy devotions will be held at 3:00 pm in the church. Please attend brunch and plan to stay for Devotions at 3:00 pm.

Retreat by Fr. Jose Uppani to be held April 1 thru 3, 2016 at St. Scholastica Center in Fort Smith. See flyer on bulletin board for more information.

Pilgrimage to France: Fr. Greg Hart will lead a pilgrimage to France from Sept. 19 to 30, 2016. Among sites visited are: Lourdes, Cluny Abbey, Cathedral of Chartres, Lisieux, the Normandy Beaches, Notre Dame Cathedral and others. See bulletin board for more information.

Dear Community Members,

Surrexit Christus vere! Christ is truly risen! Now, if you're reading this before the Gloria at the Easter Vigil Mass, please don't read it out loud. Just kidding. But, as we know this is the heart of our belief, of our faith, the resurrection of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, a "person," a Divine Person, to be sure, but a person nonetheless. Our religion is not a series of "don'ts" and "thou shalt nots." The religion we profess and love should be a manifestation of the spiritual relationship we have with "the Love of our lives," God Himself, living and true, the One Who shows us how to be truly human by perfecting our nature and the One Who lives to usher us into the Presence of His Father and the Holy Spirit, to live with Them forever. This is the religion we must live on this earth. This is what it is to be Christian. This is what it means to be Catholic!

Though a pastor must be ever mindful and grateful for the people under his care, there are at least two times per year when he must express that true and humble gratitude he feels to those selfless volunteers who strive to make his life livable. So, here goes. First, of course, I thank Father Orłowski for being such a stalwart assistant and good companion. I certainly am not easy to live with, but he takes it in stride. I also thank our deacon, Rev. Mr. Favole–Mihn for his ministry to our community throughout Holy Week. I thank Mr. Pyron and our altar servers for their outstanding service, not only during Holy Week, but all year long. Such gratitude also goes to Mr. Clayton and our schola and choir. My thanks to our ushers and collection counters. A "tip of the biretta" in gratitude to all those who gave of themselves by hosting our second Sunday brunches. Naturally, a great deal of thanks, as always, goes to the Handmaids of the Lord. Their membership has grown and there are more who take leading roles, but, as always, the lion's share of gratitude goes to the two righteous women whose "price is far above rubies," Mrs. Kathy Nauman and Mrs. Shanela Cavin. Along with her two daughters, we have Shanela to thank for the splendid St. Joseph Day reception and it is Kathy Nauman and her family whom I have to thank for the innumerable instances of liturgical set-up and break-down for events like Candlemas, Passion, Palm and Easter Sundays and the like.

Finally, I thank all of you, my children and my friends for your loyalty, trust, support and, dare I say it – love.

Father Magiera
