Dear Community Members,

Today is a very special day for us. Today, Father Brodsky returns to offer Solemn Mass, assisted by me as deacon and by Fr. Orlowski as subdeacon. The Master always needs new workers in His vineyard. We rejoice that Father Brodsky has heeded Our Lord's call to the priesthood. On 5 June, it was officially announced that, effective 1 July, Father will serve as Assistant Pastor at Immaculate Conception Church, El Paso, TX. We all wish him well in his new assignment.

There will be another, albeit, secondary treat today. Remember our fund drive for vestments a while ago? Well, we inaugurate our green Solemn Mass vestments today. This is the first opportunity for you to see these vestments in their proper context. See what your generosity has wrought!

Once again, we have our faithful Handmaids of the Lord to thank for organizing and for preparing much for Father's reception today. As always, I ask all the ladies of the community to join and be consistently active members of the Handmaids. I remember we started to put things into a higher gear several months ago, possibly as late as last fall, with several new ladies joining. Unfortunately, this enthusiasm seems to have faded a bit. Please, ladies, help your community to be more active. Sure, sometimes it's hard, I know; or there never seems to be enough time and many are so busy. But, this maxim is also true: If you want something done, ask the busy person. No one else seems to have the time.

We now enter the time for summer vacations here and there. I remind you all that, even if you can't get to a Traditional Latin Mass on a vacation-time Sunday, you still have the obligation to go to Mass somewhere. There are Catholic churches all over the place. Perhaps you'll want to fortify yourselves with a pre-vacation confession. That's a good way to start any trip.

Speaking of vacations, Father and I will be taking some time off. As of now, Father Orlowski will be away briefly, from 20 through 25 June. I, as regular as clockwork, will be going to Florida once again in August. I'll be away the last two weeks in August, enjoying life in Anna Maria Island, where I've vacationed the last 12 years. This year marks the 10th year in the same wonderful beach house.

Last week, publicly, at Mass we prayed the Act of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We also prayed the Novena to St. Joseph. That novena is now formally over, but we still have the 30-Day prayer to St. Joseph to keep us going. I urge you to be faithful in praying that prayer to St. Joseph. You know what the intention is and how important it is for us, my children and my friends. God bless you.
