Life Chain Sunday is today at the intersection of Bowman and Chenal Parkway. We have our usual assignment of standing on the sidewalk in front of Centennial Bank facing Bowman. We are allowed to park our cars in the bank parking lot. The event begins at 2:00 pm and ends at 3:00 pm. If you have never attended, we encourage you to come out and publicly make a stand against the innocent killing of babies.

Faith Formation Class at Immaculate Conception Church. Please join Marlana Grant and Ramona Bourdo this September as they discuss “How to Listen when God is Speaking/ A Guide for Modern Day Catholics” by Fr. Mitch Pacwa, SJ. Contact person: Ramona Bourdo at 831-5040.

Priestly Fall Absences: Fr. Orlowski is away from September 18 through October 13 to sub in Tulsa, to visit his mother and sub in Scranton. Fr. Magiera leaves October 17 for the FSSP Fall meeting and will return October 20. Fr. Orlowski then leaves again on October 20 to return October 25. Fr. Magiera then leaves again to baptize a baby out of state, but will return October 31. Mass cancellations, if any, will be announced with ample notice, but Mass intentions will be honored as scheduled.

Asking all of you again: Service to your community can take forms other than that of making monetary contributions. Yes, these are needed, to be sure, but there is another way Father mentions every once in a while, namely “Stewardship in Action.” Doing is just as important as giving. Men are needed for the schola and ladies of all ages for the choir.

Dear Community Members,

We are coming up on the end of September. Again, I ask myself, where does the time go? It seems that days pass without registering. Really! Last Saturday I woke up and I had to lie there and think, “what day is it today?” When I woke up Sunday, I was totally convinced that it was Saturday. Anyway, time continues to fly. The last of my Summer tan is all but gone.

You know that our bulletin is usually prepared on Wednesdays. Sometimes, the bulletin work is postponed, for this reason or that. This week, we follow our normal custom. Though I’m sure it will pass without notice, Fall officially begins tomorrow. I certainly wish that the temperature would take the hint. But, I’d be willing to bet that we’ll still have 80° days through October and into November. Imagine taking a dip in the pool on Thanksgiving Day!

The time of priestly absences has begun. Father Orłowski returned to the rectory rather late Sunday night and left on Monday – albeit later than he liked, but, still, he left. Of course, we all want to do the bulk of our traveling during the day. He just wasn’t able to leave as early as he wished. I know that he plans on visiting his mother in her new home in Virginia before continuing on to Scranton, where he’ll be substituting for Father Zepeda. Father Zepeda is Pastor of St. Michael the Archangel. St. Michael was my first assignment after ordination. I was assistant to Father Carl Gismondi. A year later, Father was set to go and do some advanced studies and the outgoing Superior General intended that I remain as Pastor. But, there was the General Chapter that year and the incoming Superior General decided to send me to Indianapolis instead. The rest is history. But St. Michael is a lovely little Gothic gem of a church.

Anyway, I’ll be holding down the fort by my lonesome until Father returns. It’s funny, for most of my adult life, I’ve lived alone. But now, after having Father Orłowski as a house-mate for a little over a year now, it seems a bit strange to be alone again. Oh, I’m sure I’ll quickly get used to being on my own again, but, for now, I kind of miss him.

Our first Fall Holy Day comes up this week, the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel. The plan is, as is our habit, to have 7:15AM Low Mass and 6PM Sung Mass. However, let’s wait till we carve that in stone, shall we? Why? Well, I have my first meeting with Fathers Vu and Chan, later today actually. We’re to “go over” scheduling. There should be no problem since there’s usually nothing for St. Patrick Thursday evenings. But as the saying goes, “whatever can go wrong, will.” Let’s hope not, my children and my friends.
