Dear Community Members,

Please remember that Father Berg will be joining us Sunday, 27 November. He wishes to speak to all of us together, so, THERE WILL BE NO 7AM MASS SUNDAY, 27 NOVEMBER. The meeting will be held immediately following the 11:30 Mass in the church. The Blessed Sacrament will be removed so we can all “settle in” for the meeting.

I hope you had a chance to check out website information on the Catholica Summer Program. The young man running it called me last week and we had a nice chat. I told him quite honestly, as I tell you now, that I wish there were something like this in place when I was that age. I hope you families with young sons seriously consider taking advantage of this program. Yes, it’s expensive. What isn’t these days? But, we would do well to consider the adage: “You get what you pay for.” I include the information again as a reminder: For info, visit www.catholicasummerprogram.com or email Joseph Long at catholica2017@prorometours.com.

Well, last Sunday was a bit of a “downer” for me. It was unfortunate that I had to give you news of my leaving on our “brunch” Sunday. We all do what we have to do. There is really no alternative to that in this life. Next Sunday will be my last Sunday with you. It’s my hope that we can all gather for Solemn Mass on that First Sunday of Advent. I know that some of you won’t be able to be here. But, I’m sure that all results of the meeting with Father Berg will get out to you somehow. Anyway, I plan to get on the road either 29 or 30 November. Officially, I’m due at my new assignment on 1 December 2016.

Next week’s bulletin letter will be the last one I write to you. You know, most of the time, these letters just “leap out” of my fingers when I sit at the computer keyboard. This time, it’s a bit difficult. It’s almost like I don’t know what to say, that I’m just killing time and taking up space. Well, not really. As I’ve said many times, these letters are my special way of talking to you when one to one communication isn’t really possible. It’s my way of telling you, sometimes, about what’s going on inside me, what I might be thinking, how I might be feeling. Once I check things out at my new place, i.e., what their bulletin is like, I hope to continue the practice and try to establish a relationship with my new flock that resembles the relationship I have with you. After all, that’s one of the important things about the priesthood, isn’t it?

In a way, it’s kind of appropriate when you think about it. After all, the First Sunday of Advent is the “New Year’s Day” of the Church, the first day of the new liturgical year. As we should do every year, we should think of that day as a new beginning of our lives, our lives in Christ and His Church.
