Welcome!

Welcome to Newcomers and Visitors! Please come join us in the parish hall after Sunday Mass. At the traditional Mass, Holy Communion is always received on the tongue while kneeling. Those unable to kneel may stand. (There is no need to respond 'Amen'.)

Chapel veils are available in the vestibule to borrow for Mass.

If you would like to register as a parishioner here, please fill out a registration form, found in the back of the church, and place in the gray box outside the Church Office.

Announcements and Events

Proper for Today's Mass: The texts proper to today's Mass begin on page120 in the St. Edmund Campion Missal & Hymnal.

Second Collection today: Catholic Relief Services.

The Second Sunday Brunch is today! All are welcome, especially those visiting for mass, to join us for an Irish-themed meal in honor of St. Patrick.

The Volunteer Work Calendar is posted on the bulletin board in the entrance to the Social Hall. Remaining weekends of March are still open to clean the church. Please sign up; you may clean on the day of your choice during that week.

Stations of the Cross are made every Friday evening of Lent, after mass.
Projects Committee and Suggestions for Projects: There is now a Projects Committee for the parish, whose members will receive project suggestions and advise the pastor in prioritizing them. There is a form available to submit requests or suggestions for work projects. For an online version, select the “Work Projects” tab on our website. A printed form is available in the vestibule, to be placed in the mailbox outside the office.

Brass Polishing Party! Come and join your fellow parishioners in a fun-filled morning after mass, polishing our sacred metalware, Saturday, March 24!

The Easter Duty of Holy Communion: According to the Commandments of the Church, Catholics having already made First Holy Communion are seriously obliged to make a worthy Communion at least once during the Easter time. For the purposes of fulfilling this duty, that time is between the First Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday (the Sunday following Pentecost), inclusively.

The Duty of Annual Confession: Separate from the Easter Duty of Communion, a Catholic having made first confession is obliged to make a sacramental confession once per year, though at no specified time.

Laws of Abstinence and Fast: Both abstinence and fast are serious obligations. Abstinence obliges from one’s fourteenth birthday, and requires abstention from meat, and from soup or gravy made from meat. According to current Church law, Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Fasting obliges those aged 18 to 59, inclusively, and allows one full meal, and as many as two smaller meals, which together do not equal a full meal. According to current Church law, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast.
